

Shedy "Eddie" Ayman Ibrahim Reyes

September 9, 1984 - February 28, 2021

Shedy Ayman Ibrahim Reyes, age 36, passed away on Monday, March 1, 2021. Shedy (known to many as Eddie) is survived by his daughter Angel, mother, Wilda Yvette Reyes, and siblings, Aliana Roman and Anthony Roman.

Shedy was born on September 9, 1984 and from the moment he opened his eyes, he had a fierce curiosity for learning and big generous smile. By age five, Shedy was trilingual and could fluctuate from one language to the other.

As a young boy he was fond of sports and exercising. Shedy aspired to travel and loved to repeat stories about his second voyage to Egypt. He was known for turning anything into an adventure finding ways to offer engaging details about the most mundane experiences.

Always an avid reader, Shedy loved learning about everything. In recent years he had challenged himself to read the classic, "100 Años de Soledad" in Spanish to improve his vocabulary.

Shedy was a proud Brooklynite! He also enjoyed a good prank and found special pleasure teasing his sister and cousins.

Shedy sought to learn about world religions and challenged himself to always keep an open mind. He was also a tech aficionado and enjoyed writing.

Shedy even dabbled at composing songs.

Of all he did, he was most proud to be Angel's father.
