“ SET YOU FREE:

*Another night without a wink,
I feel so tired I can't even blink.*

*All I can do is stare and think,
how much I love you.*

*The other day I got the news,
Since then my spirits been crying out for you.*

*I never thought this day would come,
from my head to my toes I went completely numb.*

*I know you would not want me to cry,
I just never got a chance to say good bye.*

*I wish I had a time machine,
I would change what all seems like a crazy dream.*

*If we could share just one more day,
I wouldn't be in such dismay.*

I've been praying to heal my spirit, right now there's a hollow sound I can hear it.

*As the days pass by my spirit will start to heal,
and begin to change the way I now feel.*

*From this day on I will say,
I'm keeping your loving spirt alive in me everyday.*

*I will light a candle at night,
and think of you when Its glowing bright.*

When I get to heaven you will see,

just what you always meant to me.

*It's always so hard to let go,
but the Bible tells us so.*

*Until that day I will miss,
See you in Heaven, be free Sis.*

I love you Sheryl Lynn, Always and Forever

“ My life will forever be changed, my mother was my rock. I could talk to her about everything my deepest secrets, hard decisions, and life opportunities. She always pointed me in the right direction. I wouldn't be where I am today without her love and encouraging words. She was so loving to everyone. She was the best Mother and Nana that my daughter and I could ever ask for. The way my daughters face lite up when Nana would come over. I will never forget how Beautiful she was inside and out. I love u mom RIP and be free. Payton and I will love and miss u forever , until we meet again XOXOX !

“ The world of everyone Sheryl Pittman touch will never be the same without her. She was a true friend from the first day I met her. Our relationship grew to where I turn into her son and she treated me as such. I could go to her for anything rather it was for advice, words of encouragement, problems I was having and she'd do everything in her power to help me. That's just the type of person she was. I'm devastated by the loss of you and my heart is crying. Sheryl will be sorely missed. All my memories of her puts a smile on my face. She loved everyone she came in contact with. Her spirit will live on in me. To everyone in her family God miss his daughter so he called her home and we all will see her again! Love you Sheryl or as you would say my " White Momma" ❤️

“ As I sit here and think about you my beautiful fun loving sister, I think about all the sweet memories I have with one that sticks out in my head the most is when I was a little girl and I was sick at school mom was working and you were so determined to pick me up and you rode right up to the school office on your horse. You loved me so much and made sure I was taken care of. You were not only have beauty on the outside but it was your loving caring heart that was always there. I feel the loss of you just like many others do. You were not only my sister you were my friend and I do miss you and love you will always carry a special place in my heart. I know today that you are no longer in any pain and in a much better place than me, until we meet again. Always remember I will love you, All my love your baby sister.

“ The loss of my friend Sheryl will be felt in my heart for the rest of my life. Her love for her family and all of God's creatures made an impact on my life that I will hold dear forever. She brought her shining love to all she came in contact with and brightened everyone's day with her spirit and warm personality. I wonder if I will be able to express the sadness I feel to its full extent but I do know that she will be in my thoughts forever. The hurt that is in my heart is indescribable and I hope Sheryl and her family realize how much I will miss her. Her pursuit to have a relationship with God's Son Jesus Christ was inspiring brought great happiness to me and made me so proud of her and her infinite warmth and love. Her beaming smile will be on my heart, soul, and mind forever. I hope Sheryl's family realizes how much her friendship meant to me and that her passing will affect my life in years to come. But to know that she is now in God's loving arms in His kingdom makes her passing more enduring and will make me go through my life happier knowing that she was in it. Many, many prayers go to her family for comfort and guidance through this difficult time and hope they know that God's love for you is everlasting go on until the end of time. I will miss you, Sheryl

“ I will forever be changed, after not only losing my mother, but anyone that knew us, knows, my mom and I were more like sisters or best friends! My mom was the 1 person that thought I was capable of anything! She thought her children were the best people in this world, that they were better then everyone! I know she prepared me to be able to handle anything, including losing her, which I don't know how I have all this strength to plan her funeral, and be strong for the family, but I guess through her spirit I am able to prepare all of this .And through that, since I will never get her again, I just pray I can give her the funeral that she deserves....

This is proving to be one of our MOST DIFFICULT times to accept. Sheryl's love and warmth will live on through all of us...all of her family. Words can't express the depth of total grief and loss we are experiencing.
