

Sidney "Don" Donald Ward

February 9, 1944 - February 1, 2017

Sidney "Don" Donald Ward passed from this earth on February 1, 2017 surrounded by his loved ones at his home in Orlando, Florida. He was born February 6, 1944 in Edenton, North Carolina. He was not only a master carpenter and block/brick layer but also the owner of D. W. Pools Inc., and Aquarius Pools. Don was a lover of life and adventure enjoying motorcycling, boating, RC car racing, model air plane construction and aviation. He was preceded in death by his parents Sidney B. and Sarah Ward, 2 brothers, Charles Ward and James Ward, a son Jarred Ward and a step son, Eric Thompson. Don was survived by his life partner Nancy White, their daughter Sarah Ward, his son James, his brother Jake Ward, and his sister Delores. He left six grandchildren and one great-grandchild to further carry on his legacy. Don was loved as a father by Delana Bleeker and her two children and two grandchildren, Mona Fisher and her son, Ron White and his three children and grandson, and Jennifer White. Don's life and energy touched many lives, he was conduit of joy for all who knew him, and will be sorely missed.

Tribute Wall

JW

“ James & Candy Ward lit a candle in memory of Sidney "Don" Donald Ward

James & Candy Ward - February 14, 2017 at 02:37 PM

NM

“ Naoly Mathison lit a candle in memory of Sidney "Don" Donald Ward

Naoly Mathison - February 10, 2017 at 12:17 PM