“ Though I never met her in person, her son Garry is my teammate. Garry and I often had conversations about our parents. He recounted several kind and sometimes funny stories about his mother. He remembered as a little boy in Jamaica that his mom would bring him very nice things. He spoke of her kindness to other family members and neighbors. Garry was very fond of his mother. he truly loved and cared for her, and she really loved him too ❤️ . We will cherish the memories and those of us who love and serve the Lord, will see her in heaven.
