“ Sonya sotolongo is my baby sister my best friend a piece of my heart was taken she is beautiful inside and out.im going to miss our girls nights and shopping and her goofy ways .you could never get mad at her. I miss beable to talk to her .she was a cuddler everytime she came home she either slept with me or mom i miss her everyday its been two months .i remember she stayed the night at my house in 2012 and she was trying to cook french fries in grease lit my frying pan on fire went to the ceiling she starts jumping up and down screaming like a monkey lol i never laughed so much those moments are what i miss the most sonya i love and miss you babysister its never goodbye ill see ya later! Love always your big sis casey overbeck

“ I haven't spoke to Sonya since we were kids in elementary school but I have memories of her from when we used to play school on her back porch. Those memories are how I'll always remember her. I'm so sorry to her family and close friends. God has chosen another Angel to dwell in his magic kingdom.
