

Steven L. Eckelbarger

June 13, 1950 - June 22, 2024

Steven L. Eckelbarger passed away peacefully on Saturday, June 22, 2024 at Advent Health Orlando, Florida after an extended illness.

Born in Marion, Indiana on June 13, 1950 to the late Virgil & Betty (Arthur) Eckelbarger. Steve graduated from Mississinewa High School in 1968 and Vincennes University in 1970.

Steve was an avid sports fan and enjoyed watching all sports. His favorite teams were the Indianapolis Colts, Chicago Cubs, and the Florida State Seminoles.

Steve is survived by his wife Ying and his step-son Yang Chin. He is also survived by his three children, Sara (Ryan) Seamann, Adam (Jessica) Eckelbarger, and Kyle (Deana) Eckelbarger, and seven grandchildren.

He also leaves behind his sister Carol (Richard) Brock, and brother Brian (Debbie) Eckelbarger, and sister-in-law Liliya Eckelbarger and many nieces and nephews.

In addition to joining his Heavenly Father, Steve has been reunited with his parents Virgil and Betty Eckelbarger and his brother David Eckelbarger.

No services are planned at this time. Arrangements are in care of A Community Funeral Home & Sunset Cremations, Orlando, Florida.

Tribute Wall

BE

“ Steve wasn't only my brother he played a important role in my marriage to Deb he gave me a job in his trucking company I would work in the warehouse and load freight then I would ride along on routes and help unload I eventually became a driver and was able to marry Deb which we are still married 44 years later I will always be grateful for this because it allowed me and Deb to start our journey and raise a family see you when I get there love Brian

---

Brian Eckelbarger - June 28, 2024 at 10:23 AM