Steven Edward Halter, born 7/13/1959 in Cincinnati, Ohio, to Ruth Pillings and the late Raymond E. Halter.

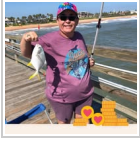

Steve moved to Central Florida in 1977. He is survived by his step-mom, Cathy Halter, sister, Diane Wharton, brothers, Jeffrey and Mark Halter, nephew, Chad Easter, niece, Amy Easter, great niece, Brooke Easter and great nephew, Austin White.

Steve loved the great outdoors! Fishing, canoeing, hiking and was up for any adventure. His family and friends will always remember his laugh and his joy for life, and his great big heart and soul.

Steve will be greatly missed and always in our hearts.

There will be a celebration of life ceremony in the next few weeks. In lieu of flowers, the family will be accepting donations during the celebration to make a donation in his honor for bike safety.

“ I worked with Steve for a lot of years at two different companies. My favorite memory of Steve leaves me a mess. One day we ate lunch outside at work and Steve used spicy brown mustard on his sandwich. When he was finished with the mustard he threw it on the ground. The next morning I showed up and was at the back of my car, another guy drove up and ran over the bottle of mustard, it went all over me. I wore spicy brown mustard all day at work and smelled, Steve thought it was great and laughed at me all day. He talked about that for months and every time he would laugh at me. We played poker after work sometimes years ago, Steve will be missed.

“ My great uncle Steve, what can I say. You were the funniest, most unique person I've ever met. I remember being a kid and always being scared to go to uncle steves house because of all his reptiles. You loved those reptiles. You would sit with me and talk about them. I only remember smiles and laughs from you. I'd come back home and tell everyone how much they needed to meet you. I rewatch the videos I took of you last year. I wanted to show everyone how funny you were. Visiting Florida won't be the same without my favorite great uncle. Tell grandpa, Nancy, and Jojo hello for me. May you all rest in peace. Love you always.

“ I sure miss hanging out with my buddy! I will never forget all the laughter and good times that we shared together. You always knew how to make me laugh! I will never go down a river, or get into a canoe without taking you as my passenger in my thoughts. There is no doubt that you were loved much more than you ever knew, and that good memories of you will be shared in the years to come. Thanks for always being a such a good friend and the best neighbor anyone could wish for!

*This world just won't be the same without you! Miss you LOTS!....

“ Steve you always kepted the family laughing. I loved your smile and beautiful eyes. You and I spent many years enjoying family events together. I loved when you came over to the house to see Uncle Larry and me and playing cards with him. I enjoyed all the help you were to me working in my flowerbeds, I think we did more laughing than work at times. May you and Nanci now hold hands in heaven forever. I love you Steve and will always miss you. Aunt Judy

“ Steve my brother. What can I say? You are in the world of paradise with no worries and with family and friends. I know I will see you some day. Can't wait to go on another adventure with you. You were always a hard worker and also knew how to party down. You were always the middle man in any disputes, as you were the middle child. LOL We were always tied at the hip, my Irish twin. RIP You finally made it!!!
Your one and only, Sis

Steve was a long time friend, as was his father Ray, both with whom Freddi and I worked at TRW in Orlando and Ray and I had worked together at Mosler in Milford, Ohio. We will miss his kind and warm gruff voice, smiling face and the laughter we shared while watching Bengals' football or just having a drink. RIP Steve, our friend. You will be sorely missed by all of us who love you. May God grant your family strength and well being as they too grieve our shared loss.

Steve was one of a kind. I met him 5 yrs ago when my wife and I moved here. We played cards, partied, BBQ'd and his favorite was the fire pit on the Island. We'd go to football games and watch his Bengals games at Cooters, boy did he hate Andy Dalton...lol. I sit on my patio and look for that signature hat walking along the pool asking, "what's going on today?" he'd ask with that laugh and rough voice. I will miss you my friend. Save me a stool up there and we'll watch some football together again. Love ya Scuba Steve.
