“ You have my deepest sympathy and empathy in you loss. During such a time I was greatly encouraged by a promise I found in the Bible at Revelation 21:3, 4 where a time will come when we will not experience the suffering that come from this type of tragedy. With this thought in mind I invite you to visit www.jw.org, there you will find more information on Gods promise of the resurrection.

“ Steve was our son-in-law when the children were toddlers and we never heard nor saw the man be impatient, only saw his love to them. He, his mom and siblings were kind to our grandchildren. In Steve's latter years , all who knew him were able to let him know that we recognize the successes he was having in reaching his goals of taking better care of himself and his life. More importantly, the children and grandchildren and he were enjoying time together. He was doing it and I believe Mary Staples Robb would have been happy and even more proud of her boy. “ Missing a long time friend. Grew up around the corner from you. I will remember how nice you always were, your humor. I last saw you probably about two years ago when you would stop by my moms to chat if you saw me or my brother Gary over visiting. Your affectionate smile is there in Heaven for our brothers and sisters now.

“ I lost a very dear friend this week. It is a very sad time. It makes me think how much we all get caught up in our own lives and don't stay in touch with the people that have ment so much to us. I have so very many memories with him. He was the closest thing I had to a brother and I will always think of him as family. He played a very big role in a large part of my life. Rest in peace Fly and I will see you again on our next journey.

I have so many fond memories of my brother Steve when we were children. Growing up in a large family we learned to care and share with each other. We had our fusses and squabbles , but were united when it came to the family. This I have found has carried over into our adult lives. I am very proud of the person you grew into. These cherished memories and the love of family and friends will help us all get through our loss. I have an emptiness in my heart, but know you will be with loved ones and safe. Rest in peace dear brother, I send my love as you take this journey. Monica
