Thank you Dwayne; you sure have. I'm going through tons of pictures of our parents and yours and they even let us kids squeeze in a few shots. :-)

WoW! I would love to see those! My mom and dad also have lots of pics of them also! Are you on facebook?

Dwayne McMillan - October 24, 2016 at 07:02 PM

Yes, I'm going to scan a bunch of these to Dropbox so we can all swap and save them. Those were the days.

“ To Randy and Vanessa: I am deeply sorry to hear of your enormous loss. I vividly remember your parents as, they, and my parents were such good friends for all these years. Vanessa I know you would not remember me, but Randy should. It is my Prayer that in the days to come, your burdens are a little lighter. Keep the Faith and Heal one day at a time.

So glad to see your comment and know that you all are doing well. Randy tried calling me yesterday at my Parents home, but his message got cut off. Have him call me 252-395-1609. Thanks Sweetie. Love the picture posted of Mrs. Susie, Beautiful!

To The Entire Stephens Family - We send our sincere Sympathy in the passing of our dear close school mates - Willie & Susie. We go all the way back to Ruffin High School, Ruffin, SC, where we graduated in 1955. Through the years my Wife and I remained close friends with Willie & Susie. Although our hearts are saddened, we find comfort and joy in knowing Willie & Susie are still together in death as in life. We Pray the family continue to lean and depend on God in this most difficult time in the loss of them both so close together. We will continue to keep the Stephens Family in our Prayers.

Thank you so much Mr. & Mrs. McMillan. My brother and I appreciate your warm and thoughtful words. I'm leaning on His everlasting arms and grateful that my parents knew Jesus as their savior. It doesn't get any better than that! Much Love, Vanessa
