“ One of my first friends I met after locating to Long Island, New York. We hung out everyday until I went on to college in the city. Through the years we always kept contact with each other and had the opportunity to share our families together as they grew. We shared our team spirit enjoying our brothers sport adventures and our handball court at the Rec, Regent's park in Brentwood and our 50 girl band of Splits, which Sylvia was the president for a short time. Always a leader of the pack Sylvia had a kind and generous ❤️ heart, she loved everybody no matter where they came from or what skin color they had. She was beautiful inside and out. I'm just happy that she was in my life so long. She called me twice the last two phone calls and that was unusual because I usually called her, she soooo wanted me to visit her and she wanted to visit me in CT . So she could scoot around the casino and see my life style she only heard about.

Most of all to meet my grandson. And if we could spend some time in Manhattan again. The last time I spoke with her must have talked to her on the 9th the day before she crossed over because I messaged her some photos of my grandson son like she asked but unfortunately for some reason they didn't go through. I resent a few times and it just didn't go through..... Now I'm here in Florida saying I'll see you on the other side my best friend and im sorry if I disappointed you in any way by not being by your side before to say good bye. My son Caesar sends his love Caesar and family

“ My deepest condolences to the husband Juan, her parents Mr. Ray and Naomi which I met many years ago through church and I consider them as my family, their grandsons and their families. Which I continue to pray for them, for the Lord to give them the peace that surpass all understanding , that only comes from Him the prince of peace Jesus 🙏. Silvia was a special person with a unique personality, I will talk to seriously about the Bible, she will always have a funny comment. She is resting now , until that day when the Trumpet sounds , and Jesus comes to get all believers out of here..

SU

So this morning in my prayers I wished you a happy ,healthy birthday. Only to find out by chance because my husband came across her son Eddie's post. I pray for the Lee/Hernandez family. We have many memories watching our children grow up together. Unfortunately life gets in the way and we go each others way not taking that minute to make that call at the times you popped in my mind. Sleep in peace 🙏
