

Tanya Marie Torres

June 9, 1990 - July 28, 2025

Tanya was a beautiful woman, inside and out. She was always very loving and adored her children. She was a great daughter, mother, sister, wife, aunt and friend. She cared for everyone and was very funny.

Tanya always called her mom, "Señora Carmen" whenever mom was mad. Tanya fought hard and got her wish of reuniting her family. She always had a smile on her face and stayed positive, even through all of the pain she was in.

When Tanya was born, her dad expected a boy but she was born to be his treasure. She dominated his heart and was his everything. Becoming her father drew him closer to God.

Tanya was a superhero. She took care of her father who has cancer while fighting her own battle. She stayed strong for everyone else during this and enjoyed life to the very end. The world was her dance floor.

Even in Tanya's last moments she was always thoughtful and thankful of others. She was always supportive and caring. She never judged anyone but loved everyone. Tanya is loved so much and will always be remembered as the strong woman she was.

Even though the time has come for you to go, we will hold on to everything we shared all the laughter, tears, and memories like an anchor.

"We love you, Tanya, with all our hearts" - Mom

"Not a day will go by that we won't think of you. Fly high baby. Til the day we meet again." - Love you, Jay
