

Taylor Marie Meador

August 3, 1995 - October 22, 2022

Taylor Marie Meador lost her hard-fought battle with mental illness October 22, 2022. Born in Richmond, Virginia August 3, 1995, she lived her 27 years shining light and beauty into the lives of all who knew her.

Taylor's talents were immense. She was a gifted musician, playing the oboe starting in middle school and becoming a top ranked oboist in high school. She attended James Madison University and graduated with a bachelor's degree in Mathematics. She loved the outdoors, hiking with her dog (Zoey), camping, attending music festivals, and challenging her brilliant mind with Mensa puzzles and Sudoku. Taylor could master almost anything she set her mind to. But the one thing she could not conquer was her mental health battle.

Taylor leaves behind a massive fan club of heartbroken friends and family: her mother, Jill Edwards (Rod); father, Jimmy Meador (Shannon); grandmother (Gramo), Susan Ginnetti; grandfather (Poppy), James Meador Sr; sister, Nikki Meador (Ben); brother, Jake Meador (Gabby); many aunts, uncles, cousins, and honorary family members.

Fly high, our sweet butterfly.

Please join us for a celebration of Taylor's life October 30, 2022 at the Breeze Hill pavilion (Fisher Lane, Maidens, Virginia). 1:00-3:00 visit with the family;

3:00-4:00 remembrance service. Comfortable colorful attire please.

If you want to help others struggling with mental illness, please consider donating to Sky's the Limit Fund <https://www.skysthelimitfund.org/donate-outback/>. Please be sure to select Outback Therapeutic Expeditions and mention this is in honor of Taylor Meador when donating.

“ Precious girl, I remember your beautiful, bright, shining face and the energy that you had when I first met you. You were a true delight to be around. Thank you for always being so loving and kind to me and my family. Your smile was a treasure and brought joy to all who had the privilege of basking in its light. Rest well sweet angel. We will miss you.
