“ You came into my brothers life with your laughter and smiles. He asked you to go out with him and then he asked you to be his wife. Your love for each other grew stronger as the years grew longer. It was so hard on you both this past year and a half, but God has ended your suffering and pain, and he's taken you to Heaven until he sees you again. Greatly loved and sadly missed :(

Remembering, and for eve being in my Heart. I don't know you very well as Teresa, you have always been Gale to me. Remembring when you were young, and you lived on one side of Buck Hill Rd, and me on the other side. Baby sitting you and running down red clay roads. I am older then you, so our lives went in different directions. When I heard you were sick, I would call you to check on you. You would never tell me what you wanted or needed, you said all I need is Prayers. You got plenty of those sweetie. Then I would pull up at your house, and take you pudding, jello, and snackes. You would hug me so hard. You knew I didn't take nothing, I am ok, for answer. I am so glad God brought us back together so I could tell you I love you, remember Gale when God calls me home, look for me, for I will be there to.
