

Tham Ngoc Le

June 10, 1948 - April 30, 2024

Tham Le (1948–2024) born in Hue, Vietnam, on June 10, 1948, passed away peacefully on April 30, 2024. He was a man of remarkable resilience, courage, and love.

Tham's life journey was a tapestry woven with threads of sacrifice, determination, and unwavering loyalty. As a Vietnam War veteran, he fought valiantly for the Republic of Vietnam, defending the ideals he held dear. His hibachi and sushi skills were not only culinary artistry but also a testament to his dedication to perfection.

After the fall of Vietnam, Tham embarked on a new chapter, leaving behind the land of his birth. His path led him first to Hong Kong, then to Montgomery, Alabama, where he continued to build a life for himself. In 1983, fate smiled upon him at Epcot Center in Orlando, Florida, where he met his beloved wife, Nga. Their love story blossomed amidst the magic of Disney, and together they created a home filled with warmth, laughter, and shared dreams.

Tham was a man who reveled in the simple joys of life. He cheered for his favorite sports teams, relishing every victory and enduring every defeat with equal passion. But above all, he cherished his family. His oldest daughter, Holly, was a beacon of pride, and his two sons, Hieu and Hoa, brought immeasurable joy to his heart. His proudest accomplishment was that all three of his children graduated from universities: the University of Florida, the University of Central Florida, and the University of South Florida. Tham's legacy continues through his grandson, Landon DeIPonte, born in April 2021—a precious link between generations.

As we bid farewell, we remember his infectious smile, his unwavering love, and the indomitable spirit that carried him across continents. May his memory be a guiding light for us all, reminding us to savor life's flavors, embrace love, and honor the sacrifices of those who came before us.

Rest in peace, Tham. Your legacy lives on in our hearts. 🙏❤️

“ We had a shared love for sports. Growing up I always looked forward going to his house on the weekend. He introduce me to the love of spicy food. Eating and talking about sports will be something i will always remember. He taught me values, heritage, and the proud culture of being Vietnamese. Thank you Chu Tham.
