*Mrs. Whitfield,
About three weeks ago I visited Orlando and your daughter Cherry was sharing with me memorable moments in the family photo albums,it was touching. Although I never meet your husband and Cherry's dad,by her telling me the fun times and seeing them in the family's photos it made it come alive! & for that I thank Cherry for sharing. my prays are with u &family that God strengths you day by by. keep the love, happiness, laughter & family together.
Warm regards ,

“ Although he was not my biological father I can truly say that Theopolied Whitfield was my real father, and I love and miss him dearly. I will miss the fishing trips we use to take together, if only I could have one more chance to fish with him.

He will be missed!

“ Daddy I'm going to truly miss you are a "TRUE" example of a man who loved his Wife, children and grandchildren. You were the most giving man I have ever known. All the love you had heart was spread between all of us. You did all you could for everyone. There's one thing that I do know for sure you Love the Lord! You will be forgotten I'm sorry I wasn't there to see you go. I love you Daddy !

“ If God had given me a choice of a man to be a father i would choose my father every time. He was a man of honor, respect and love. The memories he left behind will never be forgotten by those who knew him or even crossed his path in this life. I can sure say that my dad taught me how a man is suppose treat a family and a wife. I will miss him and will always, always love him. There will never be another that can take the place of the man that I honor.
