

Thomas Andrew Ciupak

July 16, 1952 - October 1, 2018

Tom Ciupak, 66 last July, was taken from us October 1, 2018. Son to John and Estelle, Brother to Jack and Bob, Uncle to John and Andy, Samantha, Debbie and Rebecca, Great Uncle to Morgan, Isabella, Alexander, Drew, Sarah and Rian.

His memory will always be with us. A kind, considerate and generous man, who, in life, put family first and always took care of his Mom and Dad through their final days.

Gone from us in body, but forever in our hearts, until we too, make our final journey.

You left us too soon, and we will miss you.

Tribute Wall

MK

“ I have one memory that sticks out from all the years I worked with Tom..

We were in the middle of overnight rehearsals, still having to work daily ops, so we're all exhausted, and one of the show elements fails.. this was back in the day of us doing bird releases with doves. So we were trying to get them to fly, but it's night time, and birds are smarter than we are, so they know they should be asleep. The cue arrived, we triggered the door to the release and..... nothing. The show director gets on his mic and is realllly unhappy.. “ why didn't the birds fly?” He yelled over the mic, at least twice..

it's really tense, and Tom is up in the lighting booth and he leans over the talk back mic and says calmly

“because they didn't flap their little wings!”

He forever earned my undying love and admiration for not only defusing a rough spot, but for not throwing anyone under the bus.. he could've, and many would've, but not Tom.'

I worked with him for years before he after this, but that moment has always been my favorite..

God bless you Tom, I'll buy the next round when I meet you again...

Mark Kirchner

Mark Kirchner - October 07, 2018 at 05:59 PM

RR

*Tom , was a very considerate human being.
Cast loved him and he was respected by his peers!
RIP*

Ron Rodriguez - October 07, 2018 at 06:23 PM

SZ

“ 1 file added to the album Disney

Steve Zimmerman - October 07, 2018 at 01:06 PM