“ One can never forget there older brother, as one of the younger ones he was my babysitter when our parents went out or on vacation. He taught me how to shoot a bow/arrow, but skipping the bow/arrow part and just throwing a rock. He hit the target right on. He always reminded me of my father and uncles, made the rest of us look adopted except I look like my Mom. We will miss him Dearly, and always be reminded of his present in his beautiful family, rest in peace Tom

“ He was a beautiful person and he told me once all I want to do is to help people get into homes. I met him when he was trying to develop a property in Ocala to do just that. We had many conversations. He was concerned about having a proper diet and taking care of oneself. I was out of the country when I learned of his passing. It is very sad because his goals and his desire to help were so necessary. I pray that his legacy of helping will continue through those that he touched with his ideas.
