“ To the Lucio Family,

Although I didn't know you all personally, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Francis spoke highly about all of you. I worked, talked, ate, and enjoyed a few cocktails with Francis as a contractor here in NYC for over 15 years. Over the years, and numerous conversations, Francis taught me a lot about life, family, politics (although we didn't always agree) and was a real perfectionist as a contractor. I' sure he will be sorely missed. Again my condolences to his family. You will all be in my prayers and God bless all of you.

“ My Dear Francis, you were the best brother in law I had. you are the only one that earned my love and respect. You were hard working and true to yourself and said like it is. Although I have not seen you in a few years you watched me grow up. I know it irriated you when I used to call you my favorate Jamaican. I loved getting a rise out of you but it was all in good fun. As I sit hear at work with tears in my eyes thinking of all of the memories of growing up around you. I just want to say I love you and my god bless and protect your family in your absence.

“ Uncle Francis, you will be remembered as you were one of the closest brothers to my mother. I spent a great portion of my childhood in your home with Auntie Zaida, Cathy, Toby and Melina. You was always a great cook. I give your pancakes and peleau 2 thumbs up! Thank you for all you have done for me.

I ask that God open the gates and cradle you as the last part of your journey was tiresome. You will be remembered as a soldier; strong and brave!

Until we meet again in the Almighty Kingdom of Heaven!

Rest in peace.

“ There is a special bond between a daughter and her father. I'm sure not to ever let that go. He held my hand when I was sick, he scolded me when I did something wrong, warm kisses and hugs, you guided me to be strong, as you helped me through my life to " act as if nothings wrong" Dad I can't tell you what your love meant. I may never have the opportunity to ask you " Daddy do you love me?" But in truth I didn't need validation I just needed to hear it from my hero, the Apple of my eye and most importantly MY DAD!!!!!!! Through our ups and downs and the yelling and the struggles you will always have a place in my heart. Today is the day I applaud you and fondly express how I feel, thank you so much for what you have done and I pray that you continue to watch over me. Daddy's little girl regardless of age I will always hold that title. Hugs and kisses from me to you. - Melina
