“ I was thinking about my visit to New York when I was 14 and my memory was jogged a bit. Time can make things hazy. Jill wasn't even born yet. Toni was the one that was 2 and she was so sweet and cute, and Darryl was about 4 1/2. Jilly Bird (that is what Dick called her) came later in 1968.. Toni was so tiny and cute, and Darryl was so responsible to be able to go the the corner store so young. One thing is for sure, Joan and Dick's kids were well behaved - Aunt Sheila

“ I remember Toni's little red face cheeks and shoulders after coming back from spending time at the beach when her family would come for a visit to Florida. I also remember the summer I spend in New York with Toni's family. I was fourteen. Toni was just a little girl then, and Jill was about 2 or 3 years old. The kids would play all day, and Darryl would run to the the corner store to get lunch meat or whatever his mother sent him to buy. We had good family dinners, and we spent Sundays at the Baptist church. I was so thankful for that very memorable summer, as it taught me so many life lessons, and it helped me get to know my sister, brother-in-law and my nieces and nephew. Toni was always a little ray of sunshine, and she laughed a lot! Great memories for me! - Aunt Sheila

“ My deepest sympathy to you Randy, and to Emily and Gail in the unexpected loss of your wife, and precious mother, and to you Jill, in the loss of your sister. I know Toni will greatly be missed by all of you. I am truly sorry for your great loss, and for the loss I feel with the death of my young niece. In life, we just don't know what we may have to face, but one thing I do know, there is a God in heaven who feels your pain and sorrow. I pray He will be very near to all of you during this painful time. With much love, Aunt Sheila
