“ Tony was a bright, engery filled person who loved dressing up and being the center of attention. His painting company had a good market reputation. He knew he had developed a good business. Later in life he was often ill with what we called the family stuff. We shared our illness talks, adventures and family concerns. We both missed Frankie but cherished our time with him.

Rest now little brother. Memories last forever.

*Always,
Hazel Pearl Bryant Shields
Your loving sister*

Tony, my Brother-in-law was a servant here on earth. He loved helping people in his community, and family and friends. He was a Christian, and he loved his Church Family. He was caring and devoted Husband, Father, Grandfather, and Brother. We were so honored and grateful to have him in our family. We will definely miss him. R.I.P.
