

Mr. Troy Lynn Atkins

February 8, 1956 - January 25, 2015

Troy Lynn Atkins, 58 of Orlando, Florida passed away on January 25th, 2015 at 5:30PM. He was born in Chatanooga Tennessee on February 8, 1956.

He worked till the day he died to provide for his family. Troy Lynn Atkins is survived by: his brother and sister Kelly Atkins and Dee Clark; His loving wife of 35 years, Nancy Elaine Bradshaw Atkins his children, Jamie Lynn and Troy Daniel his son in law Jarvis Perez and his grandchildren Jayden Luis Perez and Jayce Daniel Perez.

He was a special person with many many people whom considered him loved one and friend, and he had a different relationship with each and every one of them. The void the he leaves behind is bigger than any other one person could possibly fill, he will be missed.... but never forgotten.

A celebration of Troy's life will be held at the Orange County Sportsmans Association on Saturday January 31st, 2015 at 2-6PM. It is located at 9020 Kilgore Road, Orlando, FL 32836.

Tribute Wall

BG

“ Troy was a customer at my cashier window at Hughes Supply since I started working there in January 2000. He was one of my most favorite customers to see. Such a sweet man and always a kind word to me. It deeply saddened me when he told me how ill he was. I will miss hearing his voice on the phone and seeing his smile. My deepest sympathy to all his friends and family.

*Sincerely,
Barbara Gibbs
Administrative Assistant
Hughes Supply*

Barbara Gibbs - February 08, 2015 at 12:33 PM

“ I miss you daddy!!

Jamie Perez - February 07, 2015 at 03:45 PM

EW

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family during this difficult time. We pray for blessings of comfort and peace today and in the days ahead. Earl and Jo Anne West

Earl and Jo Anne West - January 30, 2015 at 11:25 AM