“ Estoy contristada con la pérdida de su ser querido, bien sabemos que la muerte es algo que sucede día a día, pero hay una bella esperanza que nos traerá cierto nivel de paz. Por tal razón quería compartir con usted algunas palabras de consolación que le ayudaran en estos momentos difíciles, tal como me ayudaron a mí. Estas palabras se encuentran en la Biblia, si tiene Biblia le invito a que lea Hechos 24:15, Revelación 21:3, 4, Juan 5: 28,29, ahí notara que dichos textos hablan de la bella esperanza de la resurrección, solo podemos imaginar la alegría de volver abrazar a nuestro ser querido que ha fallecido. Para aprender de estas promesas solo hay que seguir el consejo de Juan 17:3. Con dicho pensamiento en mente le invito a que visite el siguiente enlace, <http://www.JW.org/es/publicaciones/libros/tratado-muertos-volver-a-vir/> Ahí encontrara un artículo que habla más al respecto.

“ Gladys I am so sorry for the loss of Victor. I truly wish that we could be there to help you get through the pain of losing such a great part of you. Since the first day that i meet the family over thirty years ago, me and Victor had a great friendship, closeness no matter what he always wanted to know how things were going for me and my family. We picked the two of you as nelson's godparents because we knew that you would always love my son. I am truly gonna miss victor from my heart although he is gone we will never forget him and carry him in our hearts. May you rest in peace my dear brother-in law Victor.

“ Gladys words cannot explain how much I feel for you and your family right now. I'm so sorry for your loss. I will keep you in my prayers. I know that this time is not easy but 1 Peter 5:7 says " to throw all your anxieties upon God and he will help you because he cares you"

“ I did not know Victor personally, but I wanted to express my deepest sympathy for your family. At times like this,I have personally found Jesus Christ's words at John 5:28,29 to be truly comforting. There he promised that "the hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out...to a resurrection of life." I look forward to the time when I can see my loved ones again so much. Feel free to contact me at the attached email address and again I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to my aunt Gladys and her son Victor. I know how hard this is going to be and your head is probably spinning with questions of what if I did this or what if we did that or why didn't we do that, all of these emotions and questions are a natural reaction to losing someone you love suddenly and even when you know they are sick and passing away those questions still run through your head so try not to dwell on what could have been and don't drive your self crazy with these thoughts as there will never be answers so instead turn to each other for comfort, love and support, remember the good times, smile through the tears as you remember all the great memories you've shared over these many years and know that without a doubt you were loved by him and he was loved by you. Take comfort in knowing he is no longer suffering and will watch over you for the rest of your days. Below are a few bible passages I read after mom passed away that brought me solace and I share these with you in hopes they do the same. We love you and are here always. RIP Tio Victor.

Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Whoever believes in me, though he die, yet shall he live, John 11:25

Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths. Proverbs 3:5-6

“ We thought of you with love today,
But that is nothing new.
We thought about you yesterday.
And days before that too.
We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have is memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.
God has you in his keeping.
We have you in our heart.
