“ My Deepest and Heartfelt condolences to Ms. Violet, Marie, Michael, Lewis and The entire Wright, Pinney, Vanterpool, Williams and all the Families, Siblings and numerous friends of Vicky. I too was in disbelief of dear Vicky's passing as we messaged each other often to check on each other. Our last texts was after she came back from a Family Wedding in St Thomas. Vicky and I worked together at VIPD as 911 Police Dispatcher's and at Vitema as well. She always had a joyful light and awesome words of wisdom. I loved for that. She expressed truth and was always respectful to me and my family. She is going to be missed, but her memories will never be forgotten. No more pain dear friend. You gained you gained your wings. ☐ Fly high my friend, Victoria Sonia Wight, Until we meet again, Rest in Eternal Peace. 🕯️ 🙏💜🌸
To the Family, Keep strong. Praying for you all.

“ It’s with a very heavy heart that I’m here writing a tribute of A Faithful Warrior Victoria Vicki Wright! Vicki I’m so saddened by receiving this news of your departure from the physical world, but as I question the actions of your physical presence no longer being here, I’m at peace to a certain degree that you are no longer suffering in silence and your at peace with the ancestors. I will miss our chats and beautiful exchanges of great,powerful,and hilarious conversations. You was my protector, confidant, and motivator each and every time we got up or got a chance to chat, it was always a blessing and I will never forget the countless time we’ve laughed and hollered bout many things. Vicki I will miss you tremendously, but I do know the heart that you carried was beating with pure love for your family and everyone you came in contact with. You was truly a beautiful soul full of Love and Joy! Heart of Pure Gold, Arian birthday wishes will not be the same going forward, but I know you still got me covered with your Angelic wings now that you are with the Father. Love you and I will miss you tremendously! Sleep in Paradise!❤️🙏🕊️💔😭😭

To the Family: My Deepest Sympathies to you All, I’ll keep y’all forever in my prayers. Love you All! 🙏❤️❤️

“ Vickki words can't express how I'm feeling. I'm heartbroken to hear about your passing Vickki on October 10th. When I received the news, my heart sank, and tears streamed down my face. I still remember our last conversation, where you excitedly shared your plans to attend the wedding and Aunt Janet's 90th birthday celebration.

I'll cherish the memories of our time together, including when you visited and we hung out. I noticed you had lost weight and asked if everything was okay, but you reassured me you were fine. Your kindness and concern for others were always evident, even in small things like asking about news I might have missed.

Though I'm in shock, I know God's plan is beyond our understanding. You lived fully, laughed joyfully, and now rest peacefully. You will be deeply missed, Sis. May your family find comfort during this difficult time. 💕🙏 "Forever in my heart sis Love alone Delrease

“ When my daughter LaReina said Vicky had passed I couldn't believe it because I had just seen her a few months ago. Vicky was always a fun, loving, caring, truth giving personality . I saw her in June/July and didn't know it would be our last encounter. As usual she greeted with a warm smile and hug. Always said hey family (Im her cousin-in-law). Asked about my children and was her general sweet self. We followed each other on Facebook, Messenger and always sent each other messages. To her wonderful family she will be missed! Rest in paradise Vicky 🙏🕊️

“ It is with a sad and heavy heart I’m writing this tribute for Victoria Wright. I remember moving in PMP in building 5 while you were living in building 7. You and your family were on of the first people who actually welcomed me! You always had a smile to brighten any one’s day! For the past 42 years you and Marie have treated my children and I as family and we have loved you guys just as much. Vikkie, when I saw you in August, I didn’t know that would have been the last time we would have spoken! We spoke for more than two hours reminiscing about old times! You made sure to tell me I was one of the few people you’re personally visiting this trip before you left the next day! As we parted that day we hugged for the longest of time and we said I LOVE YOU not knowing it would have been my last hug and to see that beautiful smile! Rest easy my friend! I will always keep them great memories close to my heart! RIEP Vikki! Love Deborah
