“ I’ve been trying to find you on Facebook for years since I came home to Boston. You were one of very few people that I wanted to keep in touch with. When I first moved to Florida, you were one of the first friends I made, and your personality always made me feel like it was okay to be myself. I’m heartbroken to learn that you’re no longer with us. I figured at some point, I’d be able to catch up with you and introduce you to my family. You were the funniest person I’ve ever met. So hospitable whenever you welcomed me into your home. I mention you to my wife all the time in conversation because you really made such a lasting impression on me. You were one of a kind and I’m grateful to have known you. All my love to your family

“ This guy was always watching Telemundo while we were on the phone and was like "Juan teach me Spanish!!!, i don't understand anything they're saying". He always put a smile on anyone's face. You couldn't have a conversation with him and laugh lol Bro you left us too soon! You'll always be my little brother.
