

Wesley "Jinx" Craig Crews

November 30, 1976 - October 11, 2014

Wesley "Jinx" Craig Crews, age 37, of Kissimmee, Florida passed away on October 11, 2014.

Wesley was a stay at home father of two his two daughters; Caitlin Crews and Emily Crews.

Wesley was also a radio podcast co-host for Spookhuntersradio.com.

He was a crazy cool person and a great father. No matter what Wesley did, he always had good intentions. He was definitely a people person and did not care what people thought about him. His laughter is a staple in many people's lives. He will always be remembered as the crazy, loving person he was.

“ I remember the first monsters event I went to he decided to get badges so me and him could walk around anywhere... We thought we were so cool.. the memories of having a beer with a friend talking about our kids and times we have with them.. I'm gonna miss how u make me laugh with that snicker u do buddy... We will be reunited one day and I know that u would want us to party and not be sad but u did touch so many of us buddy ... We are sad for u that your not here and your family now as they struggle losing u buddy.. I will see u again one day my buddy

“ I close my eyes and can hear your laugh. I think back to when you came home from the hospital and how I kept trying to take your baby blanket. I needed it for my doll. I remember you running thru the yard with a cape blowing in the wind. I remember everything. I wasn't ready for you to leave me. I love you & I miss you Weswee. I hope your hair is potato color again now.

“ The loss of you will be like a broken bone. Mostly healed after time but never the same as it was before. And given just the right circumstances....a sad weathered day..... the ache will come back and that kind of pain will come and go forever. Thank you for giving your heart, your honesty, and your joy to so many people. I can't even imagine the smiles you made over the years. I won't say Rest In Peace my friend. You were fire and gumption and always on the go for something..... there is no rest in that.

“ I'm setting here giggling of the memory of us at mikes house while you got his face tattooed to your but lol that was a fun night thanks for letting me be there for that 😊 This world has suffered a grate loss but heaven has gained a Genuine person and that's hard to come by. Genuine people, but you... You made people laugh, you made them laugh so hard they cried. You were a wonderful father and husband you truly loved your girls Kathy, kaytlen an Emily. You could tell they were your world with out a doubt. So many people are going to just feel so lost and empty, as this was so sudden and so many people didn't even get a chance to say good-by. I hope that you were greeted by all you love and loved you when you walked through the gates of heaven. My thoughts and prayers are with Kathy and the girls, Samantha, Wendy, Wyatt and Wayne. Rip uncle Wess
