

Wilfredo "Freddie" Dingui

July 6, 1961 - February 27, 2025

Wilfredo "Freddie" Dingui, 63, of Orlando, Florida, passed away peacefully on February 27, 2025. Born on July 6, 1961, in Caguas, Puerto Rico, he was the beloved son of Francisco and Teodora Dingui.

Wilfredo's life was a testament to his deep love for salsa music and his unwavering faith in Christ. He was cherished for his warm smile, generous heart, captivating stories, and steadfast dedication to his family and friends.

He is survived by his loving parents, Francisco and Teodora Dingui, daughter, Evelys "Eve" Dingui-Parks; grandchildren, Robert and Jada; great-grandchildren, Jovanni and Liliana; brothers, Jorge, José, and Samuel Dingui; and sisters, Vivian, Madeline, and Johiedi Dingui.

"Those we love don't go away; they walk beside us every day." Wilfred's spirit will continue to dance in our hearts, his melodies resonating in our memories forever.

“ How I'm going to miss those moments to hug my dad again. I just hold on to the father daughter conversations. If people would listen to us, it would be entertaining. We laughed and joked at everything.

“ My favorite memories of Freddie is playing dominos and Brisca... arguing with him that he was cheating lol! He also like to say he's playing “cambodian style.” He will truly be missed and i will definitely be very sad not having him at the table playing with us. Love you my brother Freddie miss you!❤️❤️❤️
