“ Lamento mucho esta enorme perdida y sintiendo el dolor que su familia están pasando, quiero compartir la esperanza de que muy pronto "va haber una resurrección de parte de Dios", como nos dice la Biblia en Hechos 24:15. Ánimo y fortaleza para toda su familia en estos momentos dolorosos.

“ Estoy contristada con la pérdida de su ser querido, bien sabemos que la muerte es algo que sucede día a día, pero hay una bella esperanza que nos traerá cierto nivel de paz. Por tal razón quería compartir con usted algunas palabras de consolación que le ayudaran en estos momentos difíciles, tal como me ayudaron a mí. Estas palabras se encuentran en la Biblia, si tiene Biblia le invito a que lea Hechos 24:15, Revelación 21:3, 4, Juan 5: 28,29, ahí notara que dichos textos hablan de la bella esperanza de la resurrección, solo podemos imaginar la alegría de volver abrazar a nuestro ser querido que ha fallecido. Para aprender de esta y muchas otras promesas solo hay que seguir el consejo de Juan 17:3. Con dicho pensamiento en mente le invito a que visite el siguiente enlace, <http://www.JW.org/es/publicaciones/libros/tratado-muertos-volver-a-vivir/> Ahí encontrara un artículo que habla más al respecto.

“ Though we will greatly miss you, God wanted you there. He wants you to have not a worry in the world. He wants you to experience serenity at its fullest. You have completed your duty on Earth and have touched the lives of so many people. We may not understand why God needed you so urgently but we must trust it. I will see you again one day, but until then I will keep you in my thoughts. Rest In Peace.

“ I will always cherish the wonderful memories I have had with my Tio Pity. Growing up I remember going to New York and being able to spend time with my cool Tio, my Titi Sonia and my cousins. It was always so much fun that we never wanted to leave. They are wonderful memories and will never be forgotten. May You Rest in Peace and never forget how much you are loved. Love, Daly

“ I didn't know Pity would take our relationship seriously when we first dated because he was always so handsome with many women following him. He asked me if I wanted to go to the movies and ever since that day we were inseparable. His love was something more than I could have ever imagined it would be. He moved in with me. I had two kids, Veronica and Emanuel, who he treated very well. He respected me and my kids. Four years later I was pregnant with his baby boy, Wilfredo Jr. I felt like I was a queen. I never had to do anything. He did everything for me and went to every doctor appointment. He was there when I gave birth. He held Buby in his arms and never let go of his son, until now when God sent for him. Pity wasn't perfect but no one is and he was a great father and had a lot of goodness in him. He was loving and caring, but also stubborn. It was hard for him to say I love you but I know he did. His sister and my best friend/ sister in law, Sonia, always said "a woman can't hold a man down with a kid." She said that her brother loved me and not just because I gave him a son. I was with him until the end. I stood by his side and did all I could. He couldn't say thank you, but I knew he was grateful. He asked the woman in the ambulance where is my wife. I was there. He always said "Buby, I love you and Madeline you're last, save the best for last." 26 years, through thick and thin, good and bad, but the best years of my life. We weren't married but still were together til death did us part. I will always love him and now have an emptiness in my heart without hearing him say "Madelina!" I will never hear that name again because he was the only one that called me that. When he died I was in the room and I thought he was still breathing the nurse said he was dead. I cleaned him up with the nurses and laid with him. I touched him and asked God why? I wonder where is now and wait to meet again.

“ Tio Pity

*This man was sent from above
To touch each of our hearts
With the power of love
Even though he will be missed
He will never be forgotten
We will all reminisce
On everything he taught us
To fight and be strong
All through his pain
He never showed he suffered
He kept it in vain
This man was a gift
Who taught us life lessons
He made us remember
To never give up
We all now know he lies in our hearts
He has touched each and everyone of us
With his big heart
He never gave up
Not even from the start
Now he's in heaven
Where we all part
This is the end of memories
But the beginning of cherishing
Of who is and where he is
People come and go
Like leaves fall off trees
He is now in a better place
So please rest in peace
~ Written by Silem Medina*

“ Very sorry to hear of your loss, losing a love one in death is something our Creator never intended for us to experience. How we long for the time when death will be no more as promised in the Bible. (Rev. 21:4) May the God of all comfort be with your family during this difficult time. (2Corin. 1:3,4)

“ Lamento mucho su perdida. Espero que en este tiempo hallen consuelo en las palabras de nuestro Padre Amoroso. Perder un ser querido no es facil por ende queria compartir con ustedes algunos textos biblicos que me ayudaron personalmente a lidiar con la muerte de un ser amado. Revelacion 21:4 nos dice que dentro de muy poco Dios nos limpiara las lagrimas de los ojos y ya no volveremos a sufrir; añade que la muerte sera destruida y todo el sufrimiento sera cosa del pasado. Tambien, en Juan 5:28,29 encontramos una hermosa promesa, cuando nuestro Señor, Jesucristo nos dice que pronto los que estan en las tumbas conmemorativas saldran cuando sean llamados a una resurreccion.

*Dios nos promete que va a haber una resurreccion donde si volveremos a ver a nuestros seres amados que han muerto. Para mas informacion, sirvanse visitar www.JW.org. Aprecio mucho el que me hayan permitido compartir esta informacion con ustedes. Si tienen alguna pregunta, por favor, sientanse libre en escribirme a mi correo electronico.
