

Wilfredo Santiago Negrón

October 18, 1965 - August 19, 2017

Wilfredo Santiago was born on October 18th, 1965 in Rio Piedras, Puerto Rico. At the age of one his family moved to Bronx, NY. When he was eight they all moved to Elizabeth, NJ. In his thirties he joined his parents in their cross country move to Florida, where he lived ever since.

Wilfredo "Freddy" Santiago is survived by his living partner and best friend Windy, his mother Carmen, his children Wilfredo, Cynthia, Giovanni, and Anthony, siblings, six sisters, and four brothers, and one granddaughter.

Freddy was very charming and loved by many. He had a very unique sense of humor. This always made him the center of attention. He had a way of making everyone feel like family even if he just met you. He was always willing to help friends, family, and strangers alike. He was not perfect but he didn't need to be, as he was loved just the same. A mama's boy at heart, calls to his mom were part of his daily routine.

Freddy's obsessiveness with cleanliness made him the auto mechanic with the cleanest nails. Manicures were always a must. He ensure he always looked his best dressed with a youthful flair.

A mechanic by trade for over 30 years, he loved everything cars, from the tools, transmissions, audio systems, accessories, and rims. He often compared his trips to the junkyard like going to Walmart. Freddy enjoyed the simple things in life like spending time with his family, dates to the movie theater, action, comedy, and karate movies, trips to Miami, and a good cup of Dunkin Donuts coffee. However lately WaWa's coffee was a strong contender. A man proud of his Puerto Rican roots he also loved a good plate of rice, beans, and pork.

Freddy will be deeply missed as he was really one of kind. There was no one else like him. He made this world a better and a much happier place. We will never forget. May he rest in peace.

“ The last picture we took together 5 months ago...

Today Im suppose to celebrate life, instead I will look at his lifeless body..one last time.

There will be heavy hearts and lots of crying. I couldnt leave my room yesterday, thoughts on a thousand, mourning him. I felt weak at the thought of having to be strong and supportive for my family. Tonight as I age another year, I choose to celebrate his life! Freddy WAS the party! Everyday day of his life. If you didnt know better you would think he was high or drunk; always cracking jokes, always happy and vibrant.. His vice was coffee and cigarette, which he quit a year ago.

At 51 years young, his life has ended, but his memory will always be in my heart, and in the hearts of all who loved him. He wasnt perfect, he made mistakes, he loved his family and his people. No one can stay mad... He was just that dude right there- my Uncle Freddy. Rest in heaven, i will forever miss your extra ridiculous self. Stylin, buck-wildin.. Most definitely Stunting up and down the east coast💕💕

Live your life people, smile more, forgive, hug each other.. Dont hold grudges. Because I find that in the end, all we want... is more time.

8.25.2017.. I guess today is our day now.

“ You will never be forgotten even though I was a few hours away when we did see each other you treated me like family and a brother. The years we spent together working or just hanging out and laughing will never be forgotten. The thought of you being gone will always hurt but the good memories will always be remembered my brother. I know you'll be looking over us for sure. Hold them gates open bro will see each other again one day.

“ Your my brother in law but I loved you like a blood brother. I enjoyed your very unique sense of humor and your realness. You were such a happy soul. My heart is broken because of your absence. I will forever miss you. Thank you for the wonderful memories and for always making me laugh. You always treated me and defended me like a sister. Rest In Peace my brother until we meet again. Abramos muy fuerte, las ultimas palabras que el me dijo sobre ti, fue que se sentia el hombre con todo la suerte para tenerte como su mujer! Estuvistes en su lado como guerrera! lo vi con mis propios ojos. Gracias por al amor, carino y paciencia que tuvistes por el. Siempre tendras un sitio en hasta familia, y te quiero como Tia. Que Dios te calme tu corazon, xo

“ *An Eternal Memory...
Until We Meet Again!
Those special memories of you will always bring a smile, If only I could have you back for just a little while, Then we could sit and talk again just like we used to do.
You always meant so very much and always will do too. The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain, but you're forever in my heart. You was more then just an uncle, you was a friend, a partner, a brother... I'll miss you so much!
Until We Meet Again!!
In loving memory
Freddy
Love always
