“ I was sorry to find this out, two years after the fact as usual. I haven't seen Billy since 1978. He looked so much like Uncle Chick. Best to all. jdc

“ I'll never forget Billy. He was an amazing guy that always displayed an upbeat, carefree attitude on life. My favorite memory of Billy involved him singing a terrible karaoke rendition of "Brandy, You're a fine girl" to a packed New Orleans bar during Mardi Gras. He received a standing ovation because the entire bar was mesmerised by his magnetic charisma. The amazing part was Billy was so excited after his "performance" because he thought they were cheering for his singing talents :)
My condolences to Christine and the family, and God Bless You, Billy.... The Heavens just got a lot brighter...

“ Chrissy, Mary, Margaret, Annmarie, Maryjean, Charles

Although we haven't seen you in years, Laurie and I often think about the many "how can we top that" great times that we had with all of you. I loved Bill from the moment he mesmerized me during his interview for a job at Universal Brands. I loved him even more as I got to know him and became his friend. His sense of humor, smile, and lust for life are indelibly imprinted on my soul. Anyone that called Bill Clennan a friend is very fortunate! Collin, Chad... Although you don't know me, you should know that I am one of your dad's biggest fans. Rest in peace Bill!

“ My thoughts and prayers are going out to the whole Clennan family. Billy will surely be missed by all who he has touched. i have not seen him in years and i've tried to find him time and again, and then this sad news. Christine i hope you find the strength to get through these tough times. I played hockey with Bill And our families were close for his short time in Palm Beach Gardens. He used to call his son Colin "C" and I would call my son Brenden "B". We would have such fun times together. Take good care my brother and rest in peace.

“ Bill would always welcome me into the Clennan family events with a sincere smile and a kind heart. That was usually followed up by a lot of fun, usually centered around my brother, Phil, and him making fun of each other in the all best ways! Greg and I are so sorry for your loss.
