“ I have many memories of my Uncle Bill. He was always one to make you laugh, even when he didn't realize he was doing so. He had so much love for both his older sister and older brother and loved telling stories about the things they did in their past. Uncle Bill was someone you could feel comfortable talking to about anything. I will miss talking to him and hearing his contagious laughter. I am certain he is with the Lord and enjoying the eternal peace he deserved to have. I love you, Uncle Bill. ~Wendy
