“ Mr. McAfee was part of my childhood. He took Pam and me to the skating rink and would come back and pick us up; I couldn't believe he would give up so much of his time. In high school I ran out of gas a couple of times near their home and he came and brought me enough gas to get home - the last time he said, "Don't do this again." I didn't. Later, I was renting a tiny, ancient house behind what is now Universal Studios and I needed a refrigerator but I didn't have much of a budget. I asked him for advice on where to find a cheap one, he found one, brought it to my house, and carried it in by himself. He really was a selfless, kind and giving man. I know there is a special place in heaven for him, however, he will be missed. My prayers are with his family.
