

William Edward Patriarch Sr.

June 23, 1939 - January 24, 2021

William Edward Patriarch, Sr., 81, aka Bill, Pate, Pop-pop, G-pop, and Mr. P, joined our Heavenly Father peacefully on Sunday, January 24.

He leaves behind Joan, his wife of 53 years, and three sons, Bill, Jr., Steve (Ella), John (Jessica). Other family members who will dearly miss him are granddaughters Danielle, Jasmine (Carlos), Chasity, and Lauryn; grandsons Jack and Jameson; and great-granddaughter Lily.

Bill was born in Philadelphia where he resided with his parents, one brother, and two sisters all of whom have predeceased him. Bill joined the Marine Corps in 1958 and was honorably discharged in 1961. He returned to Philadelphia where he began a 40-year career in the airline industry. He worked for National, Pan Am, and Delta from which he retired in 2001. He and Joan decided to transfer to Orlando in 1975, mostly due to Bill's dislike of cold PA winters!

Bill loved football and was thrilled when his three sons shared his passion. He coached some of their Boys' Club teams during their elementary years and never missed a Jr. High, High School, or College game his boys played in. The four of them never missed a Philadelphia Eagles game whether in person or on TV. Right now, Bill is probably saying, Go Eagles!

He was one of the most honest, fair, loving, giving, and respected men any of his family and friends ever knew. He was an ardent Catholic and truly lived his faith. He will be sorely missed, but as he said in his last days, "I will be watching over you and waiting for you to join me. Stay safe; God Bless you."

“ I'm so honored to have been your daughter in law for the past 11 years. You were the perfect example of what a great man and father should be to your sons and raised a true gentleman. I will be forever grateful to you for that reason. I will always remember your sweet demeanor. You were a man of few words, but always greeted me with a big hug and smile and said "God Bless ya Hun." My boys truly loved their Pop Pop with all of their hearts and your spirit will continue to live on through them. I am so proud of you, and proud to have been made a part of your family. You were the Patriarch of Patriarchs. God Bless you now Bill and may you rest in peace....until we meet again.

With love, Jessica Patriarch

“ I never met William in person. I only know him through his son John. If the son is a reflection of his father, then William was truly a Good Man! The World will sorely miss him!

“ In 2007, barely knowing me, other than as John's friend, Mr. Patriarch helped me out with a plane ticket to Paris. It was the trip of a lifetime that I otherwise couldn't have afforded to go on. He did this for no other reason than to help someone out. He was a good and generous man and I'll always remember him doing that for me. Sending Prayers and Love to all of the Patriarch family.
