“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Please accept my deepest sympathy. May you find comfort from your memories, as well as God's word the Bible. Why do people we love die? Romans 5:12 says: "That is why, just as through one man (Adam) sin entered into the world and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men because they had all sinned." How loving of God to promise what is found at Revelation 21:4 which says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away I invite you to visit the following site for more on this promise; www.jw.org

“ I am sorry for the passing of your loved one; please accept my sincere sympathy. While you are grieving your loss, I hope you can find some comfort in Jesus' promise of the resurrection (Acts 24:15) when those who have fallen asleep in death, will be raised up and restored back to life, with the hope of eternal life, on the renewed Paradise earth. -John 5:28,29; Luke 23:43. Until that blessed promise is fulfilled and you are reunited with your loved one again, may Jehovah God grant you peace and comfort now, during this time of sorrow. -Matthew 5:4.

“ Wisdom for Modern Life by Daisaku Ikeda
Saturday, February 8, 2014:

Josei Toda often compared death to sleep. When we have been awake for a long time, we tire and go to sleep. And when we wake up after a sound sleep, our vitality is restored. After we have been alive for a long time, we grow weary and die. And then we set out on a new life with a fresh spirit. Death is a period of "recharging" for our next existence.

“ To the family and friends, I am so sorry for your loss. God provides comfort in these difficult times through promises of hope for the future. A resurrection of all those in the memorial tombs, John 5:28,29, A time when no resident will say "I am sick"... Isaiah 33:24, and Rev 21:4 promises that mourning, pain, and even death will be no more. For now, hold on to your precious memories and may God bless all of you with peace.

“ To the family of Willie Lewis, we (the Mercer family) are so sad to hear of the passing of your love one. You have our deepest sympathy during your grieving. We grew up like family living next door to your mom, dad, sisters, and brothers. Your mom baked the best pumpkin bread, and your dad working hard to take care of the family. I can go on and on about the good times we all had but, we just wanted to say that you are in our prayers and may God continually bless you all. We love you!!
