

Yader Jiron

April 18, 1978 - August 31, 2022

It is with a heavy heart that the family of Yader Jiron announces his passing that took place on August 31, 2022 in Orlando, FL. He was born in Managua, Nicaragua on April 18, 1978 from parents Maritza Rivas and Rolando Jiron.

Yader was known for being the life of a party, full of energy and full of charisma that would light up any room he would walk in. He was warm hearted and would jump to help anyone in need. Friends remember Yader for his generous spirit and humor and that he wouldn't miss the opportunity to come up with a nickname for everyone. Family also remembers him for his rocking DJ skills at big gatherings.

Yader was very hard working and was employed by the Freeman design company at the Orlando branch as a high level Creative Designer. Co-workers say he was always looking out for his colleagues; First to jump on the project and last to leave. Yader had a creative eye and unique design perspective and personal touch that made clients, staff and other team members love him and his work. He always said 'a rendering is a promise to the client' and he took that responsibility very serious to create passionate experiences.

From long road trips to camping with his friends and family, Yader enjoyed life and everything it had to offer. He had a talent for cooking delicious meals, bringing people together and making sure everyone always had a good time.

He enjoyed casual parties but also had a fancy side and loved fine dining especially a big flavorful steak.

Yader will always be remembered as a loving husband to wife Ina and a dad who was elated at his son Dylan Blue's first giggle and first word DaDa. He was adamant about making sure his family was safe and taken care of.

Yader cherished the memories of his life with his loving wife, Ina Jiron Bahnaru; son, Dylan Blue Jiron; mother, Maritza Rivas; brother, Tommy Vazquez; sister, Esbelia Morales; as well as many more family and friends that will miss him immensely.

He is preceded in death by his father, Rolando Jiron.

Es con gran pesar en el corazón que la familia de Yader Jiron anuncia su fallecimiento, que tuvo lugar el 31 de agosto de 2022 en Orlando, FL. Nació en Managua, Nicaragua el 18 de abril de 1978 de padres Maritza Rivas y Rolando Jiron.

Yader era conocido por ser el alma de una fiesta, lleno de energía y carisma que iluminaba cualquier habitación en la que entrara. Tenía un corazón cálido y saltaría para ayudar a cualquiera que lo necesitara. Los amigos recuerdan a Yader por su espíritu generoso y su humor, y porque no perdería la oportunidad de crear un apodo para todos. La familia también lo recuerda por sus habilidades de DJ rockero en grandes reuniones.

Yader trabajaba muy duro y fue empleado de la empresa de diseño Freeman en la sucursal de Orlando como diseñador creativo de alto nivel. Los compañeros de trabajo dicen que siempre estaba pendiente de sus colegas; el primero en saltar al proyecto y el último en irse. Yader tenía un ojo creativo y una perspectiva de diseño única y un toque personal que hizo que los clientes, el personal y otros miembros del equipo lo amaran a el y a su trabajo. Siempre decía que “un renderizado es una promesa para el cliente” y se tomaba esa responsabilidad muy en serio para crear experiencias apasionantes.

Desde largos viajes por carretera hasta acampar con sus amigos y familiares, Yader disfrutó de la vida y todo lo que tenía para ofrecer. Tenía talento para cocinar comidas deliciosas, unir a la gente y asegurarse de que todos la pasaran bien. Disfrutaba de las fiestas informales, pero también tenía un lado elegante y le encantaba la buena comida, especialmente un bistec grande y sabroso.

Yader siempre será recordado como un esposo amoroso para su esposa Ina y un padre que estaba eufórico con la primera risita y la primera palabra de su hijo Dylan Blue, DaDa. Se mantuvo firme en asegurarse de que su familia estuviera segura y cuidada.

Yader atesoraba los recuerdos de su vida con su amada esposa, Ina Jiron Bahnaru; hijo, Dylan Blue Jiron; madre, Maritza Rivas; hermano, Tommy Vázquez; hermana, Esbelia Morales; así como muchos más familiares y amigos que lo extrañarán inmensamente.

Es precedido en muerte su padre, Rolando Jiron.

“ I have worked with Yader for many years. He was always a bit crazy which was such a welcome reprieve to the insane work we do. He always made me laugh at myself (and sometimes him). I am so sorry for your tremendous loss. I hope you find solace in knowing that he was a joy to know and will be missed by so many. Sending you all much love and prayers.

Yader was a joy, full of laughter and a great smile. I enjoyed his visits to my office and how he would confide in me. I felt like a Mom giving him my best advise. I was very happy for him when him met his Love Ina and then his bundle of joy Dylan. His loss is a big one and I pray for Gods guidance for all the family during these heartfelt time. Yader Jiron RIP 🙏✝️ “ Lifting you and your family up in prayer during this difficult time. I'm so sorry for your loss. I've known Yader for a little over a year now through Freeman, and admired his creativity, tenacity, and fearlessness. He was never afraid to speak up, and he was also willing to help out a fellow designer - plus he always made us laugh. He will be greatly missed! Sending lots of love and prayers to you.
