“Poncho you were definently loved in Eatonville. It's as if we all lost an Uncle. I met Pancho when I was about 12 in '87, he was always kind, and he always helped. As a matter of fact, Poncho is the reason I got hired at my job. He vouched for me to a relative that worked for the company and im still there 28yrs later. Thanks for everything Poncho. We love you.

“Mi querido primo.. ya descansas de tanto sufrimiento. Solo me reconforta saber que estás en la memoria de Jehova, y el te resucitará como bien prometió Jesucristo. No he conocido a nadie tan generoso y hospitalario como tu. Te vamos a extrañar. A toda mi familia, espero que Dios les de la fortaleza y resignación que necesitan en estos momentos. Los quiero mucho... ❤️❤️❤️
